DV EAGLES – COACHES CORNER

This weekend we welcome to the Shire of Nillumbik, the visiting Yale Bulldogs from the USA.

Known for it's academic excellence, Yale athletics is becoming more and more well known in particularly it's men's Basketball program.

Diamond Valley Basketball Association and all it's sponsors and supporters welcome our visitor's to what is affectionately known as "The Valley". We would like to thank ABT for giving us the opportunity to host Yale and as a guest of the club we also welcome Yale alumni Paul Maley and his wife Kari to the game.

Along with our current men's team we welcome in some players from surrounding associations that not only compete against us but also bring an exciting brand of basketball which I know will excite the crowd and will showcase the talents of basketball from the Big V League.

We would like to begin welcoming back to his old stomping ground, a Diamond Valley favourite – Chris Arkell. Currently playing with Waverley, Chris was a prominent member of our Championship winning Youth league teams in the late 2000's. He is a former coach of our junior teams and we are all excited to see him back in the Eagles colors. We also welcome into the game, former US citizen and stalwart of the league, the powerful Jamaal Brown from the Hume City Bronco's. Jamaal is a key member of the Hume City team and is a strong, powerful player who has a great finish in the key and has a great feel for the game.

I look forward to getting to coach JB and I am sure his experience will help the young boys take on the Bulldogs on Sunday. Finally, from the Melbourne Tigers, we welcome a league and crowd favorite, Dexter Kernich – Drew or DKD as many know him. Fresh back from his College career at Washington State University, Dexter showed his worth helping his young Melbourne Tigers to some great results and showed he has really improved and is ready to take his game to another level overseas.

Finally I want to thank all the folks at Diamond Valley for helping get this off the ground, Joe Crupi, Jason Van Hout, Ross Wignell, , the scorebench & officials, the Brad Arnoldt, (Crt announcer) my team and staff and all of the folks who support our great association.

Thank you for your support and hope you enjoy the day.

Alan McAughtry
Head Coach

INTRODUCING...

THE YALE UNIVERSITY BULLDOGS

Based in New Haven, Connecticut, Yale University is a private institution of higher education known for its academic excellence, selectivity in admissions and social elitism – having graduated 5 U.S. Presidents, 19 Supreme Court Judges, 13 Billionaires, countless members of Congress and Rhodes Scholars.

Having been established in October 1701, Yale is the 3rd oldest University in the United States.

The Basketball program is well regarded, and the team are known as the Yale University Bulldogs which compete in the Ivy League – a collection of 8 private Universities who are generally regarded as the most prestigious and highest ranked worldwide.

The Bulldogs have won 6 National Championships, dating back to the early 1900s, and 5 Division 1 Ivy League Championships - including 2015 (tied with Harvard).

Yale's coach is 51-year-old James Jones, who has spent 16 seasons with the team to date, has coached to a 57% win rate and has accumulated the 3rd highest wins in Ivy League history. Earlier this year, Jones was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame. Under Coach Jones, the Bulldogs have assumed the identity of being a physically tough outfit who pride themselves on rebounding the ball with reckless abandon at both ends of the floor. They want to get EVERY rebound and win their team more possessions.

Yale will be led by the stellar play of Seniors Justin Sears and Jack Montague. 6'8 Sears was named the Ivy League Player of the Year for 2015, averaged 14.7 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.4 blocks per game last season and was a highlight reel waiting to happen.

Meanwhile, 6'1 Montague is an enigmatic guard, who is a sniper from long range – shooting nearly 44% from the 3pt line last season. Montague was also named captain of the Bulldogs for the coming season.

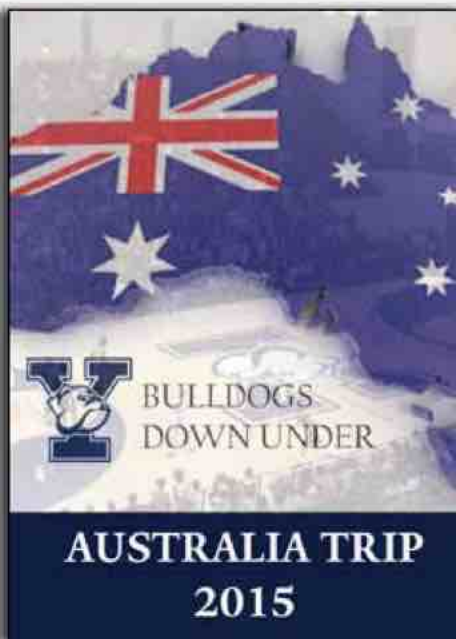

The Bulldogs play our Big V State Championship Men's team as part of a 10 day Australian tour of Melbourne and Sydney. Our upcoming trip to Australia will help us build upon the success we've enjoyed the last two seasons," said Head

INTRODUCING... THE YALE UNIVERSITY BULLDOGS

Coach James Jones. "It will also give our younger players an opportunity to filter into our system with real game experience so when the time comes this season they will be ready for action."

While in Melbourne, the side will be playing tourist, including a training session with the Collingwood Football Club (Australian Rules), assist in conducting a basketball clinic with Helping Hoops, checking out the wildlife at Healesville Sanctuary, and an Australian Rules Football game between Hawthorn and Geelong at the famed Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG).

In Sydney, the Bulldogs are planning to visit some of their famed beaches, the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Opera House (courtesy of Pick-and-Roll).
