Handy advice for first home buyers

Buying a home is an important decision and purchasing your first home, even more so. It can be a tricky and somewhat daunting process which is why it is essential to do your homework, have a plan and budget, and seek expert advice before jumping in.

Here are some quick tips to help avoid some of the common traps when taking your first step onto the property ladder:

- Be clear on what you can afford to spend to avoid looking at properties that are out of your price range.
- Work of the best home loan for you and check the ongoing repayments taking into consideration interest rate increases over time.
- Get pre-approval for your loan so you know exactly what properties you can afford to be looking at.
- Understand all your costs such as stamp duty, pest and building inspections, insurance and legal fees.

KICKIN' IT WITH KRISTEN

AFL AND WRFL CELEBRATES INDIGENOUS ROUND

By KRISTEN ALEBAKIS

This weekend the AFL community will come together to celebrate the contribution Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have made to our great game, as part of the annual Sir Doug Nicholls Indigenous Round.

It is a milestone year, it is 50 years since the successful referendum where two references in the Australian Constitution, which discriminated against Aboriginal people, were removed.

This week's Indigenous Round will also be celebrating the 25 year anniversary of the Mabo decision. An historic event, where Eddie Mabo challenged the Australian legal system and fought for recognition of the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the traditional owners of the land.

Leagues across the state will all be marking the round in their own unique way, while in the AFL, rivals Essendon and Richmond will go head-to-head in the Dreamtime at the 'G clash.

In the WRFL, the Albion Football Club will be wearing a specially designed Indigenous jumper. Albion's Seniors, Reserves and Under-19 teams will all be wearing the guernsey in their match with St Albans. The club will also conduct a smoking ceremony.

It's great to see the Cats throw their support behind the special round. I would encourage footy fans in the west to head to JR Parsons Reserve and be part of the special day.

See you at the footy.

UMPIRES CORNER

THE FUTURE IS FEMALE

By GRAEME HODGART

It's been a big 12 months in football. Although there have been many stories and incidents, both positive and negative, the progress and strides forward of women in our great game has been a focus.

The development of the AFLW was embraced by all sections of the football community. No doubt this growth will continue in the years ahead. Last September in the WRFL one of the goal umpires in the Division 1 grand final was Christine Gent. This was the first time that a female goalie had officiated in such a final in our league. In the recent Victorian Metropolitan interleague games, Christine was appointed as a goal umpire in the senior game involving the Hampton League.

Just last weekend, history was made when Eleni Glouftsis became the first female field umpire to officiate in a senior AFL match. Originally from South Australia, Eleni was in control of the Essendon and West Coast clash held at Etihad Stadium.

On the senior AFL panel of 26 goal umpires three are female: Sally Boud, Rose O'Dea and Chelsea Roffey. (Michael Craig is now the sole WRFL representative on that panel after David Dixon retired at the end of Season 2016.)

Unfortunately, the growing interest in females within football circles has not led to a mass influx of new female umpires into the WRFL. Of course, there have been some, and the WRFL and the Umpires Association does its best to encourage and support greater participation of females within the field, boundary and goal umpiring groups.

It wasn't that long ago that local football was a male dominated affair. There were many females involved in football clubs, but to a large extent they were mainly in the background or found working hard in the canteen. History does credit some wonderful exceptions in the past. As time goes by there will many more females getting involved in football as more opportunities arise. The example of role models will play an important part. Hopefully more females will venture into blowing whistles, running lines and waving flags in the WRFL.

Quiz

A field umpire awards a free kick to a player and an opponent uses abusive and insulting language towards the umpire. What happens next?

- (a) The field umpire warns the player.
- (b) The field umpire awards a 50 metre penalty.
- (c) The field umpire reports the player, sends them from the field and awards a 50 metre penalty.

NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH RAWFORM COMPRESSION

THE Western Region Football League is pleased to announce a new partnership with RAWFORM Seamless Compression for the 2017 season.

During training, game day and recovery, players will feel the benefits of RAWFORM Seamless Compression, with overall exceptional support and pressure focused on hips, thighs, groin and rear with improved endurance and recovery.

WRFL Marketing Consultant Peter Harley said he is excited by the partnership which will allow players to purchase compression shorts direct through RAWFORM at a competitive price.

“We think this particular arrangement will work well with this type of garment as it enables individual players and, in the case of juniors, their parents, to order compression shorts online, at a competitive price and have them delivered directly to the players’ home,” he said.

RAWFORM General Manager Simon Hosking said RAWFORM shorts were reliable compression shorts.

“The shorts are the realisation of sports performance apparel we wished existed in the market,” he said.

“We just wanted compression shorts that did what they said they were going to do. Our sales pitch is simply just get people to try the shorts. We’ve tested the shorts from AFL to grassroots level and the feedback is always that they are the best compression shorts they have worn.”

The deal includes discounted products to WRFL players, their families and friends.

“We are passionate about local football, developing future AFL stars and looking after seasoned player’s bodies” Hosking said.
